Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 1 year on each of Counts 1 and 2 (to run concurrently) for a total term of 1 year.

CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

1. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.
2. The defendant shall not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. The mandatory drug testing condition is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.
4. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer with respect to the collection of DNA.
5. The defendant shall work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you become unemployed, change your employer, position or location of employment, you must tell the probation officer within 72 hours of the change. If after 90 days you do not find employment you must complete at least 10 hours of community service per week until employed or participate in a job skills training program approved and directed by your probation officer.
6. The defendant shall report to the probation officer in the manner and as frequently as court or the probation officer directs, and shall notify the probation officer within 48 hours of any change in residence, and within 72 hours of being arrested or questioned by a police officer.
7. The defendant shall not knowingly travel outside the district without the permission of the probation officer, who shall grant such permission unless the travel would hinder the defendant's rehabilitation or present a public safety risk.
8. The defendant shall answer truthfully any inquiry by the probation officer pertaining to the defendant's supervision and conditions of supervision, and shall follow the instruction of the probation officer pertaining to the defendant's supervision and conditions of supervision. This condition does not prevent the defendant from invoking the Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination.
9. The defendant shall permit a probation officer to meet the defendant at home or any other reasonable location and shall permit confiscation of any contraband the probation officer observes in plain view. The probation officer shall not conduct such a visit between the hours of 11:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m. without specific reason to believe a visit during those hours would reveal information or contraband that wouldn't be revealed through a visit during regular hours.
10. The defendant shall not meet, communicate, or otherwise interact with persons whom defendant knows to be engaged or planning to be engaged in criminal activity.

11. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon (meaning an instrument designed to be used as a weapon and capable of causing death or serious bodily harm).

The defendant shall commence restitution payments in the manner and schedule as determined by the Court. The imposed payment schedule will remain in effect until such time as the Court is notified by the defendant, victim, or government that there has been a material change in the defendant's ability to pay. Restitution shall be paid at a minimum rate of $100.00 per month commencing 30 days after placement on supervision until said amount is paid in full. Failure to pay according to this condition shall not be grounds for imprisonment unless the failure is willful.

Within 72 hours of defendant's release from prison, the probation officer is to meet with and remind the defendant of the conditions of her supervision and also to consider whether to recommend to the Court any modifications of or additions to those conditions in light of any changes in the defendant's circumstances since the sentencing hearing. Consistent with United States v. Siegel (7th Cir. May 29, 2014), the Court also directs the Probation Office to notify the Court within 30 days of defendant's placement on supervision so that it may consider any appropriate modifications to the defendant's supervised release and schedule a hearing on that topic, if necessary. The defendant may also request a modification of these conditions at any time by filing a written motion with the Court.
